

Collision Injures Drivers

Two persons were hospitalized Monday after the cars they were driving collided on Western Avenue near 186th Street.

Rushed to Little Company of Mary Hospital were Erwin J. Liggett, 68, of 15705 Raymond Ave., Gardena, and Marvell Calvin Sneed, 48, of 1423 Lime Ave., Long Beach.

Liggett suffered a major laceration on his nose and complained of back pains. Sneed received a head laceration and chest injuries.

Liggett's car sustained total front end damage, while Sneed's vehicle was totally demolished on the right side.

The two vehicles were headed south on Western Avenue at 10:40 a.m. when the collision occurred, police said.

Singers' Workshop Planned

"Fun With Songs" Workshops for volunteer leaders of youth groups will be held May 23 at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd., according to Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

Adult leaders will be taught techniques for leading youth group singing during the workshops sponsored and conducted by the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation.

Specialists will teach group, community and campfire singing as well as songs which can be used as openers, middleers and closers.

A registration fee of 50 cents will be required of all participants to defray the cost of brochures and materials.

The workshop will be held from 9 a.m. until noon.

Vote on Committee Defended

A vote by Congressman Glenn Anderson (D-17th District) against further funds for the Committee on Internal Securities has been defended by a spokesman for the South Bay McCarthy Democratic Club.

Mike Herrera, president of the club, said he was "very pleased with Congressman Anderson's vote." He said the House committee, formerly the House Committee on Un-American Activities, "has since its inception been an instrument of persecution rather than prosecution, and gravely endangers the right of free speech guaranteed under the Bill of Rights."

Anderson's vote against funds for the committee had come under an attack from a member of the Republican Central Committee in Los Angeles County.

EC Band To Give Concert

The El Camino College concert band, under the direction of Dr. Lewis Hilgel, will present its annual spring concert in the college auditorium Friday at 8:30 p.m.

Appearing as soloist with the band will be Dr. Robert Haag, well-known concert pianist in the South Bay area and a member of the music faculty at the college. Haag will play Edward Grieg's "Piano Concerto in A Minor, First Movement."

Also included in the program will be "Concerto for Trombones" featuring band members Roger Maddaford and Tim Martinich along with Dr. Hilgel. Conducting this part of the program will be Anthony William Fox, a first-year student at El Camino.

The remainder of the program will be made up of works by Frescobaldi, Strauss, Turina, Carter, Whear, Leyden and Nelybel.

No admission will be charged for the program.
